

AUGUST 9 IS CENSUS NIGHT.

OUR MOMENT TO PAUSE AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

Everyone in Australia must complete the Census – even if you are not staying at home or are an international visitor.

Census field staff are permitted by law to enter secure apartment buildings and may leave Census materials under apartment doors or in letterboxes.

After Census night, field staff will visit households that have not completed the Census – they can be identified by their official Australian Bureau of Statistics identification card and yellow satchel.

Need help?

If you haven't received your Census materials by August 9, please call 1300 214 531.

Get online on August 9.
